- [40] Not in scope
- [42] 18(d) - information is already publicly available or will be publicly available soon.

Dear Andrew

Thank you for your recent engagement on Budget 2021. As you will be aware, we have set a very high bar for the initiatives that will be invited for submission, limited to only the most critical cost pressures and urgent manifesto commitments.

I have considered the cost pressures that you outlined in your letter, and am inviting you to submit the following initiatives. I expect that both will be supported by a robust case for funding and a strong evidence base, as well as scaling and reprioritisation options.

New Zealand Intelligence Community – [33]

I expect this initiative will be accompanied by a robust Implementation Business Case complete with detailed costings, which will allow for it to be considered alongside [33]

New Zealand Intelligence Community – [33]

I expect this initiative will clearly demonstrate how [33] will align to the Government's key objectives over the next three years, in order for Cabinet to consider if it wants to prioritise further investment in this area. As well as providing scaling options, this initiative [33]

While I have invited these initiatives to be submitted, this does not guarantee that they will receive funding. The Treasury will assess the value for money and relative priority of all initiatives, and this advice will help to inform the shape of the final Budget 2021 package to be decided by Budget Ministers.

You will note that I have not invited the initiative [33] It is unclear how this fits within the narrow definition of a critical cost pressure, and [1]

If I receive further information on this it may be possible to consider a Budget proposal.
[33]

As per the expectations that I have previously outlined around fiscal management, I will not support any out-of-cycle funding requests unless there is a compelling case for urgency. However, I wish to emphasise that the other information you have provided will help to lay the groundwork for future Budgets, and provides an important insight into the challenges and opportunities facing our Government this term.

Yours sincerely
