Hon Willie Jackson

Wellington

Dear Willie

Overview

Thank you for your recent engagement on Budget 2022. As you will be aware, we have set a very high bar for the initiatives that will be invited for submission.

Over 560 initiatives were submitted through the Budget 2022 invitation process. Indicative funding sought totals $64 billion operating and $9.2 billion capital across the forecast period. As will be obvious to you, that is far beyond the funding available and has required me to make early decisions to allow for an effective Budget process.

Even having done this, I still need your assistance to support the Budget process. In that light, I have had to carefully reduce the number of potential Budget 2022 initiatives through the invitation process, to reduce wasted effort and to ensure that the Budget decision-making stage is as strategic and targeted as possible, supported by robust value-for-money analysis and confidence of delivery.

I expect the number of initiatives submitted in December across all portfolios to be less than the number invited. Similarly, I expect total funding sought to be less than the indicative funding of invited initiatives. I ask that you play your part in this focusing of Budget priorities and submit only those invited initiatives in your portfolio that are the highest priority, represent strong value for money, and are implementation ready.

When initiatives are submitted in December, I expect these to be accompanied by a clear articulation of relative priorities. This may include a ranking of submitted initiatives within your portfolio, identifying those that are less-discretionary and higher priority.

When prioritising, I expect you to focus on the implementation readiness of initiatives and delivery risk. I will be supporting only initiatives that are implementation ready, unless there is clearly articulated reasoning for why an exception to this rule should be considered.

Budget 2022 Invitations

With this in mind, I have considered the proposals that you outlined in your letter for your Māori Development portfolio, and the initiatives detailed in Annex 1 are invited for consideration through Budget 2022.

All Budget 2022 initiatives are expected to complete all value-for-money information and analysis requirements outlined in the initiative submission template due 10 December, except for the cost pressure initiative identified with an asterisk in Annex 1. As this initiative is considered to be low risk and involve a small quantum of funding, this initiative is only required to complete delivery aspects of the value-for-money information and analysis.

In addition, select initiatives in the Education, Employment and Training space are required to complete an additional gender analysis template. Within your portfolio, these initiatives are:

- [33]
- Whenua Development (13698)
- Whānau Resilience (13699)
- [33]

Further, select initiatives related to housing have been chosen to take part in the Exemplar Process, which is designed to support your agency in applying He Ara Waiora and the Living Standards Framework in greater detail than in previous years. In your portfolio this includes the [33]. When considering this initiative, I will take into account the improved quality of evidence that your agency will provide. I hope that this will provide a model for the broader application of these frameworks in future Budget rounds and I appreciate your participation in this process.

Initiative submission templates and guidance were communicated to your department on 30 September and are available on CFISnet.

Please note that while I have invited these initiatives to be submitted for consideration, this does not guarantee that they will receive funding. The Treasury will assess the value for money and relative priority of all initiatives, and this advice will help to inform the shape of the final Budget 2022 package considered by Cabinet. Therefore, I expect that all initiatives will be supported by a robust case for funding and a strong evidence base, as well as realistic scaling and reprioritisation options.

Delivery of Budget 2022 Initiatives

The Treasury has advised me of potential early-stage delivery risks associated with a number of the initiatives I have invited, the details of which are included in Annex 1.

Ahead of initiative submission, please ensure your agency works closely with the Treasury to work on a plan to mitigate delivery risk where possible.

If delivery risk cannot be mitigated, I expect you to consider deferring these initiatives to a future Budget, at which point I would expect this risk to be mitigated. If these initiatives cannot be deferred, I expect you to outline a clear rationale in December for why funding is required through Budget 2022 despite these concerns.

Next steps

I wish to emphasise that the other information that you have provided will help to lay the groundwork for future Budgets and this information provides an important insight into the challenges and opportunities facing our Government this term.

I look forward to discussing options for funding initiatives through Budget 2023 at a later stage.

Thank you for your ongoing work.

Yours sincerely

Annex 1: Budget 2022 Invitations

Title	Comment and/or condition	Delivery risk
[33]
13697 Te Pae Tawhiti		Te Pae Tawhiti is an all-of-government process with a broad set of policies that still require further decisions by Ministers.
13698 Whenua Development		Significant investment is proposed in this initiative, therefore information on delivery components including implementation, risks and timelines is needed.
13699 Whānau Resilience		This initiative will require capacity in the provider network to support any uplift in demand; and planning for evaluation and monitoring.

13700 Māori Media		The proposed quantum of funding in this initiative is large for the sector. Further information on costings, allocation of funding, and business cases will be needed to ensure investment is targeted appropriately.
13702 NZ Māori Arts and Crafts Institute*	When this initiative is submitted in December, I expect further information on the nature of cost pressure to be presented.
