Budget 2022 Information Release

August 2022

This document has been proactively released and is available on:

- The Budget website from August 2022 to May 2023 only at: <https://budget.govt.nz/information-release/2022>, and on
- the Treasury website from later in 2022 at: <https://treasury.govt.nz/publications/information-release/budget-2022-information-release>.

Information Withheld

Some parts of this information release would not be appropriate to release and, if requested, would be withheld under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act).

Where this is the case, the relevant sections of the Act that would apply have been identified.

Where information has been withheld, no public interest has been identified that would outweigh the reasons for withholding it.

Key to sections of the Act under which information has been withheld:

- [1] 6(a) - to avoid prejudice to the security or defence of New Zealand or the international relations of the government
- [23] 9(2)(a) - to protect the privacy of natural persons, including deceased people
- [25] 9(2)(b)(ii) - to protect the commercial position of the person who supplied the information or who is the subject of the information
- [27] 9(2)(ba)(ii) - to protect information which is subject to an obligation of confidence or which any person has been or could be compelled to provide under the authority of any enactment, where the making available of the information would be likely otherwise to damage the public interest
- [33] 9(2)(f)(iv) - to maintain the current constitutional conventions protecting the confidentiality of advice tendered by ministers and officials
- [34] 9(2)(g)(i) - to maintain the effective conduct of public affairs through the free and frank expression of opinions
- [35] 9(2)(g)(ii) - to maintain the effective conduct of public affairs through protecting ministers, members of government organisations, officers and employees from improper pressure or harassment;
- [36] 9(2)(h) - to maintain legal professional privilege
- [37] 9(2)(i) - to enable the Crown to carry out commercial activities without disadvantage or prejudice
- [38] 9(2)(j) - to enable the Crown to negotiate without disadvantage or prejudice
- [39] 9(2)(k) - to prevent the disclosure of official information for improper gain or improper advantage
- [40] Out of Scope
- [41] 18(c)(i) - that the making available of the information requested would be contrary to the provisions of a specified enactment
- [42] 18(d) - information is already publicly available or will be publicly available soon

Where information has been withheld, a numbered reference to the applicable section of the Act has been made, as listed above. For example, a [1] appearing where information has been withheld in a release document refers to section 6(a).

Hon Stuart Nash
Minister of Tourism
Parliament Buildings
Wellington

Dear Stuart

Thank you for your recent engagement on Budget 2022.

I note that you have not proposed any initiatives for consideration as part of Budget 2022 for your Tourism portfolio. Thank you for adhering to the strict criteria that we have agreed to for this Budget.

I support your proposal to reprioritise funding within existing baseline expenditure in the Tourism portfolio in order to better align with our priorities and deliver value for money. I look forward to discussing reprioritisation options at a later stage.

Thank you for your ongoing work.

Yours sincerely
