Dear Brooke

Request for further baseline savings options for Budget 2026

Thank you for your Budget 2026 submission. I am looking forward to working with you in the coming months.

As you know, Budget 2026 is being prepared at a time when New Zealand is in a challenging fiscal position. Living within the Budget allowances will require us to make some difficult choices and trade-offs. My Budget 2026 invitation letter asked you to provide savings options to meet your baseline reduction target of 2 per cent.

I have reviewed your submitted savings initiatives and note that there are savings proposed from [33]

I therefore request that you provide options for further savings from DIA's wider baseline.

Please also provide information on the potential implications from these further savings, including but not limited to the upcoming changes to the Department of Internal Affairs that relate to the creation of the Ministry of Cities, Environment, Regions and Transport.

Please provide updated savings options via return letter to me by 12pm, Wednesday 11 March. Please direct your officials to submit details of the initiatives by the same deadline to the Treasury.

Yours sincerely

Hon Nicola Willis
